Chamber of Commerce Comes Out for Referendum on Prohibition Question.

ONLY TWO NAYS VOICED AGAINST SUCH ACTION

Chapin Brown Reports Bright Prospects for District Representation in Congress.

The Washington Chamber of Com erce last night favored a referendum ote of the residents of the District of Columbia to settle the question of pro-hibition in the National Capital. The ote in favor of such action was practically unanimous, only two navs being roiced against it. The attendance at he meeting was the largest that has been present at any similar gathering of the chamber in several years.

A resolution favoring a referendum vote to determine whether the District shall have prohibition was introduced by Albert Schulteis, who made a short talk in favor of its adoption. S. T. ameron said the referendum plan was being advocated by the liquor interests in an attempt to defeat prohibition. The question had been under considera-tion less than five minutes when the vote was taken.

The House bill he said, is now in the hands of the House committee on election of President, vice President and representatives in Congress. The Senate bill was referred to the Senate District committee and then to a special subcommittee of that body. This subcommittee has forwarded it to the District Commissioners for their recommendations concerning it. that hearings on the Senate bill will be held in the near future.

"I have yet to find a member of either house who has not expressed his hearty approval of the plan to give representation in Congress to the District by constitutional amendment." said Mr. Brown. "It is safe to say that the bill will pass the Senate in from sixty to ninety days and before the end of the session the House bill will have been passed. Within from four to six years I expect to see the right of suffrage extended to the citizens of the District, for I believe the states will ratify the proposed amendment to the Constitution."

Mr. Brown's remarks were greeted with great applause.
